Jr./Sr. Parent Appreciation Day

September 20, 2009: This is a day for our children and the football league to show their appreciation for all the hard work you as parents have put forth during the season. Everyone in the league appreciates the effort you have put forth making sure your child is dropped off and picked up on time, has a clean uniform for each game and all of the various other things you do to help make the season a success. Please be sure to arrive at least 20 minutes prior to game start.

Parent Job Sign-Ups

Each family is required to work four parent jobs during the season. Refer to handbook for further information. Senior team parents may sign up on Wednesday, August 5th and junior team parents on August 6th. First come first served no prior sign up unless requested by a board member and no buy out allowed.
